Activities: Tisa – St. Patrick’s Day party being planned for March 14th. Tisa will see if the church (St. Alban’s) will be available.

Corrections: No report

Newsletter: Sean – January issue is on the website.

Phone/Info line: Dan – received 1 text who attended the FOB meeting. One collect call from a corrections facility --- not accepted.

PI/CPC: Heidi and Sarah are contacting Judge Bustamante in Levy County to include the Probation Department. Trying to open the door to court ordering offenders to AA as well as trying to set up meeting at the Levy County Jail.

Website: Sean – All is up to date. Received an anonymous email telling us someone she knows with 5 yrs sobriety had relapsed.

Where and When: Sarah provided most current Where & When’s.

OLD BUSINESS: NONE

NEW BUSINESS:

1. Chiefland Reflections on Sunday – no one is opening the door for this meeting.
2. Reimbursement for the Holiday Party hosted by the KIS group on Cedar Key.
$96.65 to Sean for food expenses – receipt received.
$278.50 to Todd for food and dry goods expenses - receipt received.
There is some leftover dry goods and soda that can be stored at the District storage unit. Will need to contact Nikki to meet there with the things to be stored.
3. Todd M. resigned as Treasurer. He left right after the meeting started, very unhappy with District members who have not provided him with the bank statements, checkbook and the binder with the Treasurer history. Sarah H. as second signor, will act as interim Treasurer until someone steps up for this position. After Todd left the room, Tisa remembered where she had put the Treasurer binder etc. which was in the room on a shelving unit. The reimbursements (see #2) were made to Sean and Todd. Sean took Todd’s check with him back to Cedar Key.

MOTION TO ADJOURN made at 6:30 by Sarah H., seconded and passed unanimously. Meeting closed with the Serenity Prayer.
